"Quit India" Echo Heard In Britain On Ninth August

(From Our Correspondent)
LONDON, August 10.
Hastily convened small but symbolic meetings as instructed by Mahatma Gandhi were held last night all over Britain at which resolutions were passed endorsing unconditional support to the "Quit India" resolution, reaffirming allegiance to the policy and programme of the Congress and declaring absolute confidence in the Congress leadership and Mahatma Gandhi.
The meeting in the East-end of London arranged by the India League was remarkably well attended. Most speakers, Hindu and Muslim, emphasised the importance of the forthcoming Gandhi-Jinnah talks. They demanded the formation of a National Government and release of political prisoners.
Other speakers were Mr. Reginald Bridgeman and Mr. Krishna Menon. At the meeting in West-end held by Swaraj House Mr. K. I. Muhiddin who was recently elected to the Bar, moved the resolution supporting the Congress. The other speaker was Mr. Fenner Brockway who reminded the audience that many thousands of Englishmen had close solidarity with the people of India. Mr. Brockway's first thought on 9th August went to the many prisoners in India, many of whom were known to him personally. Mr. Brockway added: "I am perfectly confident that, although they are in jail for two long years, not even British Imperialism can fight history. Historical developments will make India independent and despite persecution of these people it makes one sceptic of course, about the real objectives of Britain in this war. The ruling class in Britain which imprisons real anti-Fascists cannot be trusted to bring in freedom to exploited peoples."
Mr. Iqbal Singh from the Punjab said that during the last few years, particularly since 9th August 1942 people of India had lived themselves morally and spiritually.
The attendance at the meeting in Birmingham under a Muslim Chairmanship arranged by the Committee of Indian Congress was the largest. It was attended by Indians also from Wolverhampton and Coventry. There were speakers belonging to the local Jamiat-ul-Muslim, the Sikh Doctor, Dewan Singh, and Mr. P. B. Seal.

Jinnah Leaves For Bombay

BHOPAL, Aug. 10.
It is understood that Mr. Jinnah is likely to call a meeting of the League Working Committee in Bombay soon after his meeting with Gandhi to acquaint the Committee with what transpires at the meeting. The date for the Bhopal-Jinnah meeting will be fixed after Mr. Jinnah's arrival in Bombay this afternoon after a short stay here. The League leader was in very good spirits and while he smilingly declined to say anything pending his forthcoming meeting with Mahatma Gandhi, he remarked: "Patience is the watch-word—patience, perseverance and industry."—A. NEW DELHI, August 10: A further consignment of 80,000 tons of wheat is reported to have arrived in India from overseas during the week ending August 1.—A. P.

GANDHI-JINNAH TALKS NEXT WEEK

Mahatma Eager For All-Round Settlement, Says Sapru: C. R. Answers "Dawn"

(From A. P. And U. P.)

Mahatma Gandhi is expected to meet Mr. Jinnah next week. Dr. Tej Bahadur Sapru left for Allahabad to-day. Last night he again had a discussion with Gandhi when Mr. Rajagopalachari and Mr. Bhulabhai were present. Mr. Desai leaves for Bombay tonight.

The deputation of Bengal Congressmen led by Mr. Kiran Shanker Roy met Gandhi this afternoon.

GANDHI-SAPRU TALKS

"You can say we had a friendly discussion. This was the only remark made by Gandhi when approached by the 'United Press' representative shortly after two and a half hours' talks he had with Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru this noon. Sir Tej Bahadur drove again to Sevagram in the afternoon and was again with Gandhi for an hour. It is gathered that the forthcoming Gandhi-Jinnah talks on basis of Rajaji's communal formula were the most important subject of the three and half hours' discussions at Sevagram to-day.
It is learnt that Gandhi drew Sir Tej Bahadur's attention to his seven point proposals for the solution of the deadlock, the Government's attitude hereto and also to the recent debate in the British Parliament and pointed out how this unhelpful attitude had been standing in the way of an early solution of the political impasse, though he had gone to his utmost limited in his anxiety to end the present political stalemate. Sir Tej Bahadur, it appears, apprised Gandhi of what transpired between him and the Viceroy on the Indian situation.
Interviewed on his talks with Gandhi, Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru said: "I found Gandhi very eager and keen on the question of settlement all round. A large part of the interview covered his health, which he said was very good. Beyond this I should say anything as I feel that may not be in the larger interests of the country."
Mr. C. Rajagopalachari and Mr. Bhulabhai Desai held informal discussions with Gandhi this morning.

Leave It To Bengal To Decide

"We differ fundamentally. The Rajaji formula will completely ruin Bengali culture and language and her sacrifice of half a century will have been in vain," said the leader of the deputation of Congressmen from Bengal after discussions with Mr. Rajagopalachari and Mr. Bhulabhai Desai to-day.
In their discussions with Mahatma Gandhi on the Rajagopalachari formula, at which Mr. Rajagopalachari and Mr. Desai were also present, the deputation is understood to have urged that the question of Bengal should be left to be settled between the Hindus and Muslims of Bengal. By doing so there was a probability of a satisfactory solution in view of the opposition of almost all parties in Bengal to the scheme.
Mahatma Gandhi gave the deputation a patient hearing and is understood to have informed them that the points raised would receive his careful consideration.
The deputation is leaving for Calcutta tomorrow morning.

Circular To A. I. C. C. Members

Mr. Kiran Shanker Roy, in the course of a circular letter sent to all the members of the All-India Congress Committee and ex-Ministers of the Congress Government provinces, says that Mr. Rajagopalachari's formula "has created a consternation in Bengal and goes counter to the resolution passed by the I.C.C. at Allahabad and Delhi." He further says: "Although Mahatmaji has agreed

HONOLULU TALKS ON PACIFIC WAR

Roosevelt Discusses Plans With MacArthur And Admiral Nimitz

HONOLULU, Aug. 10.
President Roosevelt spent three days in Honolulu, where the inspection of installations and held military conferences.
The President conferred with General MacArthur, Admiral Chester Nimitz, Admiral Halsey and Admiral Leahy on the coming phases of the Pacific war.
The results of the momentous meeting other than to say the talks concerned new offensive plans but he did not indicate how soon the realisation of these plans might be expected.
The rumours that Mr. Churchill was to attend the conference failed to materialise and President Roosevelt said any talk at present of Mr. Churchill's presence applied with the same unrelenting vigour against Japan as against Germany.

NEW OFFENSIVE PLANNED

As the Pacific War Council he told war correspondents that the unconditional surrender policy of Mr. Churchill and himself applied with the same unrelenting vigour against Japan as against Germany.
The President did not divulge the results of the momentous meeting other than to say the talks concerned new offensive plans but he did not indicate how soon the realisation of these plans might be expected.

PACIFIC FLEET

Speaking of the tremendous growth of the Pacific fleet, which he said would be a formidable force of other types of combat craft, the President said the Naval strength was perfectly wonderful to see and the speed with which it was accomplished was amazing. He said that progress in the Pacific was quick and that the beginning of the war Hawaii was the furthest outpost, now the island had reduced to a few miles westward including Guam.
The President was non-committal about the post-war prize might be taken against Japan for behaving American-ally. Asked if Emperor Hirohito would be held personally responsible, he said such thinking was premature.
During the visit the President reviewed the famous Seventh Division, formerly commanded by General Stilwell. This division is known as one of the toughest fighting outfits in the Pacific, having conquered Attu and occupied Kiska in the Aleutians and the island of Kure in the Marshall Islands.—Reuter.

Americans Speeding Towards Philippines

The German Overseas News Agency, reporting American naval and air activities in the south-west Pacific, said that the American fleet was invading the Philippines. Quoting a message from its Shanghai Office today, the Agency said: "Strong American naval concentrations are cruising in the vicinity of Bonin Islands (within Japan's inner defence zone). The fleet includes aircraft carriers, from which various attacks against a number of islands have already been made. During the last few days American naval artillery has been shelling more islands, and naval units have made appearances in the Philippines (New Guinea and the Philippines). Admiral Nimitz, according to reports reaching Shanghai, is conducting operations against Salina and its neighbouring islands. An air raid on the Philippines has already been carried out from his headquarters."—Reuter.

NEW BATTLE FOR WARSAW STARTS

MOSCOW, Aug. 10.
Reuter's special correspondent cables—General Koniev's forces continue to widen their bridgehead over the Vistula and are driving the Germans back over roads to Cracow and Kielce. German attempts to cut off the bridgehead proved a costly failure. The Russian forces are now to-day. Fresh Soviet forces are crossing the river day and night on camouflaged ferries. The Luftwaffe is still in the air.
The Russians have not been shaken by the fury of German attacks in the East. Russian heavy bombers continue to pound German supply routes in East Prussia and shell suspected concentrations of German tanks and armoured cars in deserted farmsteads.
Battle For Warsaw
The new battle for Warsaw has flared up with the resumption of the Soviet offensive and the German attempts to break through the Polish lines. The latest Russian report says: "The enemy from his favourable lines is putting up a stiff resistance. Hot battles are raging particularly for highways. The town of Sokolow, an important highway was occupied by our troops, who broke the German resistance."

LE MANS LIBERATED: NANTES REACHED

Many-Pronged Allied Thrusts Towards Paris: Nazi Bid Quit Brest And L'Orient

(From Reuter's Special Correspondent)

S. H. E. A. F., August 9.
German naval vessels and transports are reported to have entered the harbours of Brest and L'Orient presumably in a last minute attempt to evacuate the garrisons. They may try to land the troops at some point further down the coast, but there is no official confirmation of this development.

MANY-PRONGED THRUST TOWARDS PARIS

The Allied armies are continuing their many-pronged thrust towards Paris and deep into France. American forces are now believed to be on the road to the Capital.
Canadian troops have broadened their wedge towards Falaise and are now fighting an armoured battle near Potigny where, beachhead reports say, the Germans have launched a counter-attack.
The American forces who have reached Nantes met only slight resistance but ran into an immense number of mines. They are now clearing their way through these before entering this vital communication hub of the Loire.

ANGERS SURROUNDED

Angers, about fifty miles to the north-east, is surrounded, but there are too great minefields have to be cleared before the troops can enter the town.
In Brittany, elements of three German divisions are stubbornly defending Brest. At Lorient the garrison is still putting up a desperate defence. In Saint Malo, one German strong point is still holding out, but the estuary the garrison of Dinard is resisting stubbornly. About 30,000 prisoners have already been taken in the Saint Malo area.
North of Falaise, the Canadian have broadened their salient to about three miles at the narrowest point and are now pushing forward which to continue their double armoured thrust.

BATTLE FOR VIMONT

British troops of the First Canadian Army, engaged at Vimont on the main Caen-Paris Road about 70 miles south-east of Caen. Heavy opposition was encountered after the advance had reached the outskirts of the town and fighting is now proceeding in and around Vimont.
Vimont is a vital holding town for any German withdrawal movement from the Caen area. In addition to the main road, it controls a knot of other roads covering alternative routes to Paris and the main Paris-Caen highway. Within an area of six square miles there are more than six major road junctions.
The British army is rolling south again, pushing three armoured thrusts into German defences on a broad front.
East of the Orne an armoured column has broken out from the bridgehead area and stormed south to engulf a village and highground known as the River. Less than two miles from Thury Harcourt. They are chasing the Germans who are retreating to a second column moving down the main Aunay Conde road, has taken Tremblay and highground to the west.
The third force has crossed the Vire Vassy Road and captured Ruitere and Rouillon.
Remilly lies six-and-a-half miles south-east on Aunay-Bur-Odon, and six miles south-west of Thury Harcourt. Ruitere is three miles south-east of Vire.

Eisenhower's 'Communique'

General Eisenhower's 'communique' to-day states: "Le Mans has been liberated by the Allied forces and our troops are in the vicinity of Angers in the Loire Valley. The City of Nantes has been reached and our columns are converging on the city. In Brittany, the enemy is now in Saint Malo, but the enemy at Dinard is resisting stubbornly. Along the north coast road we have passed through Morlaix.
At Brest, the enemy garrison has rejected an ultimatum to surrender and fighting is proceeding outside the city. Lieutenant-General Karl Spang, commanding the German 26th Infantry division was captured near Brest.
Lieutenant Karl Spang was captured in an ambush by American forces outside Brest.
It is believed he was taking up an important mission at the time of his capture, and that it may have been the command of the German garrison at Brest.
ON NORMANDY FRONT
On the Normandy front, there has been no major change in the line. Vigorous patrolling is being carried out in the Mayenne area. The enemy holds Morlaix and heavy fighting has been going on north and west of the town. The Germans' counter-attack at Gathemo was checked by five of the 25 enemy tanks which participated South of Saint Germain de Falleville. Our troops have advanced 1,000 yards.
The Allied advance towards Falaise has penetrated the first and second German positions and reached the neighbourhood of Potigny. The villages of Poussy-la-Campagne and Saint Sulpice have been taken and armoured columns have reached Estreilles-la-Campagne and Soignolles. Our troops in the bridgehead over the River Orne repulsed further counter-attacks yesterday and have driven the enemy back. Further west, more ground was gained south-

Hitler Plans Last Stand With Secret Weapons

LONDON, August 10.
From Reuter's military commentary—Herr Hitler is quite clearly planning the last stand with the elite of his Naz Army. For this he has consorted with an inconsiderable force of the Luftwaffe.
He has new airplane types, such as the rocket fighter. All these are to be reserved for the last stand to delay the Allied victory.
But the speed of the Russian and the American advance has upset this plan. It is becoming impossible to bring back intact and in time the armies Hitler wanted. The Baltic armies were ordered to stay put. The Normandy Army was ordered to stay out. And now four Panzer Divisions in the East and others in the East have been ordered to counter-attack, whatever the cost.
The stake is high. If the Allied advance rolls on in strength, if the Maginot and the people of France rise and speed the Allied race, then the chances of Hitler assembling enough troops for the last stand are remote. Today minutes are more precious to Herr Hitler than Panzers or Generals' heads. They are also precious to the Allies.

NAZI COUNTER-ATTACKS

Today's German 'communique' said: "South of Caen the enemy continued his strong attacks and has enlarged his penetration in the area south and south-eastwards. Our counter-attacks checked the enemy advance and brought it to a standstill. The enemy lost 7th tanks south of Caen and west of the Orne between August 7 and 9.
In the remaining sectors of the front the enemy continued his strong attacks at the same focal points as hitherto. He succeeded in gaining ground only south of Le Mans and south of Vire. Heavy fighting continues.
In Italy the enemy resumed his attacks on the Adriatic coast using strong forces. The attacks broke down with heavy losses to the enemy."
In Russia the 'communique' said, German troops were engaged in heavy fighting at Sanok where Soviet troops had broken into German lines. North-west of Baranov repeated Soviet attacks were broken up.

POLISH PREMIER MEETS STALIN

MOSCOW, Aug. 10.—The Prime Minister M. Stanislaw Mikolajczyk was received by Marshal Stalin for one and half hours last night on the eve of his departure for London. After his interview with Stalin, M. Mikolajczyk said that a continuation of his conversations with representatives of the Polish National Council and Committee is anticipated. He told the Press regarding his conversations with the Polish Committee of National Liberation that the proposals it put forward will be considered in London after his return.
Asked whether he felt more optimistic about a successful conclusion of the negotiations, M. Mikolajczyk said that the matters with which they were dealing touched not only the future of Poland and relations with Soviet Russia but they concern the future peace and for future collaboration among nations and for such a thing a way out must be found.—Reuter.

FORCED LABOUR FOR WOMEN

LONDON, August 10: The German News Agency today gave this statement by Dr. Goebbels in his capacity of Trustee for Total Mobilisation: "The call-up age for women for compulsory labour has already been extended to fifty years. Another decree does away with the old law. Now further measures for total mobilisation have been either begun or are being accelerated. Essential services in Germany's public life will be brought about which will affect the whole population called upon to shoulder the tasks. These measures are to free labour for armaments and war production and soldiers for the front.—Reuter.

MORE JAP SHIPS SUNK

WASHINGTON, August 10: Sixteen more Japanese vessels, including one warship, have been sunk in Japanese waters by United States submarines, announced the Commander-in-Chief of the Pacific and Far East. The ships sunk were one large cargo transport, two small cargo ships, one medium tanker and one escort vessel.—Reuter.

JAPS CAPTURE HENGKANG

CHUNGKING, Aug. 10: Hengyang, an important road and rail junction in Hunan, southern China, has fallen to the Japanese after a heroic resistance of nearly two months. The Chinese High Command announced to-night.—Reuter.

India is anti-Fascist to a man. Independent India will not have a dictator on the Japanese model. From a country ruled by the twin dictatorship of military and big business, any offer of freedom is as ludicrous as it is false. We need no help from Japan.

Progress Of British India General Insurance

SIR HOMI MEHTA'S SPEECH AT ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Sir Homi Mehta, presiding over the 24th annual general meeting of the British India General Insurance Co. Ltd. on Thursday, Aug. 10, 1944, at the head offices of the Company, Mehta House, Apollo Street, Bombay, said—

Owing to paper restrictions we were not permitted to print and circulate among you, the Directors' report upon the Company's 1943 working. The Annual Accounts and Balance Sheet have been in your hands for some time, however; consequently I presume that, as usual, you will take them as read. You have heard read the Directors' Report and the position is thus regularised.

I will now add my comments. This Annual General Meeting falls during the Jubilee year of the Company. The 13th September next will see the completion of twenty years since the inauguration of your Company. That period has covered various vicissitudes causing grave anxieties from time to time but I claim that all those "teething troubles" have enabled us to approach our second century on a solid foundation—fully equipped for whatever the future may hold. That future, as I see it, will produce steady progress and prosperity to our Company, for there is undoubtedly a splendid outlook for Indian Insurance if carried on under a sound policy and management. Because of this, and having had a successful and all-round progress in 1943, the Directors have pleasure in recommending the payment of a Bonus of 24% to shareholders over and above the Dividend of 7½%, to mark our Jubilee year.

The increased Capital, i.e., from Rupees Fifty Lacs to Rupees One Crore was duly sanctioned by Government during the period under review and it will be interesting to you to know that the offer to Shareholders to subscribe to the new Capital resulted in there being an over-subscription of 65%, and that, too, at increases are largely from Indian business, as usual. The net incurred-loss ratio is satisfactory, at 33.3% although 4% higher than in 1942. Full provision for outstanding losses has of course been included. We have increased additional reserves by over Rs. 1,12,000. The tragic occurrence of the 14th April has been justly indemnified to a large extent by Government and this Company's contribution is fortunately very small.

MARINE DEPARTMENT. Underwriting in this Department shows an improvement even upon the satisfactory outcome of the previous year's activities. The net premium income remains steady but reserves have been increased substantially, to 100%. The method of reporting accounts in this Department has been changed to conform to the "proportion" of the net premium and by virtue of the nature of our Marine business, is more appropriate.

ACCIDENT DEPARTMENT. The net income increased substantially over 1942 figures, the total premiums showing an increase of nearly two lakhs of rupees over those for the previous year. The net loss was actually 42.3%. In this Department, again, additional reserves were enhanced by Rs. 36,000.

Investments and cash balances increased during the year under review. The net income, however, was a satisfactory feature is the continued reduction in Acquisition Costs (Commission and Expenses). During the last two years many new Companies have been floated. I welcome them and extend to them this Company's co-operation. For among us is a most desirable feature because, although competition is inevitable, it must be healthy, and it is only from unity that competition can be kept within the bounds of reason. I hope sincerely that we shall not lapse into pre-Act conditions when business was put on the books of so many Companies without apparent regard to Acquisition Costs. A reputation of such conditions must be avoided at all costs, and on a note of warning, all Companies will naturally result in slower progress, but that progress will be sound.

The world war position is getting clearer every day and I hope before this year is out we may see the end of the massacre and have peace and prosperity over the world. I am sure the Allied Nations will see that the peace terms give no cause to the conquerors or to the vanquished for harboring an evil. I am sure all that the seeds for another conflict may never take root. The world has suffered enormously by this war; the ruin that it brought about is so extensive that no one can express in adequate figures—the budgetary positions of all the countries are so shaken that it will take many years before they will have a breathing space. I have every confidence that the leaders of all countries will pave the way towards continuous world peace and prosperity hereafter.

I thank my colleagues—your Directors—for their continued support. Our thanks are extended in no small degree to our Agents, Managers, Staffs, by whose excellent work and loyalty our outstanding progress has been maintained.

I now invite comments on the Report, Audited Accounts and Balance Sheet of the Company for 1943.

REPORT OF DIRECTORS. The Directors herewith submit the Report, Audited Accounts and Balance Sheet of the Company for 1943.

The Company's results continued to be satisfactory.

FIRE DEPARTMENT. The Net Premiums amounted to Rs. 16,25,087, as compared with Rs.

12,80,566 in the previous year. The Net Losses paid and outstanding amounted to Rs. 5,41,508 (42.2%). After crediting interest, charging all expenses allocated to this account, providing Reserve for unexpired risks at 40% of the Net Premiums and increasing the additional Reserve to Rs. 1,62,508, the balance of Rs. 1,15,020 is transferred to the Profit and Loss Account.

The First Funds now stand at Rs. 2,44,240. MARINE DEPARTMENT. The Net Premiums amounted to Rs. 2,44,240, as compared with Rs. 2,47,365 in the previous year. The Net Losses paid and outstanding on account of 1943 and preceding years amounted to Rs. 1,40,533 (57.5%).

The Outstanding Claims included in this figure amounted to Rs. 30,000. Prior to the passing of the Insurance (Amendment) Act of 1944 such claims were not debitable. The Revenue account is now presented in accordance with Form F of the Third Schedule of the Insurance Act of 1938 which provides for the debiting of Outstanding Claims.

After crediting interest and charging all expenses allocated to this account, the balance of Rs. 2,03,333 is transferred to the Profit and Loss account. The Marine Funds now stand at Rs. 2,44,240 (100%).

ACCIDENT AND GENERAL (MISCELLANEOUS INSURANCE). The Net Premiums amounted to Rs. 6,63,980 in the previous year, thus realising the Directors' expectations as stated in their last report. The net loss was 42.3%. The net income, however, was a satisfactory feature is the continued reduction in Acquisition Costs (Commission and Expenses).

During the last two years many new Companies have been floated. I welcome them and extend to them this Company's co-operation. In accordance with the said Article he holds office until the next Ordinary General Meeting of the Company, but being eligible offers himself for re-election.

Mr. A. H. Bhivandwala resigned his seat on the Board on 1st July, 1944, owing to pressure of other duties. The resignation was accepted with regret.

In accordance with the Articles of Association Mr. H. P. Commissariat, Mr. Chhannalal Farach and Mr. F. H. Mehta retire from the Board by rotation, but being eligible offer themselves for re-election.

AUDITORS. Messrs. A. F. Ferguson and Co., have audited the accounts and balance sheet now submitted and offer themselves for re-election for the ensuing year.

Central Rural Uplift Association, Bombay. The annual report of this Association for 1943 shows that the Association had to its credit quite a number of substantial services rendered to the Rural Masses, the chief amongst them was that of tackling the food situation, and giving relief to the distressed—all activities of course directed towards village organisation on a permanent basis.

Within the area of the following 10 villages (i.e. Nanded, Vadgaon, (2), Hingane, (2), Kopre, Shivane, Varje, Kothrud and Erandavane)—villages which are more or less under the direct influence of our propaganda—about 860 acres of extra land was brought under cultivation, and about 4,000 maunds of grain and 3,000 cart loads of Kadi were, in total, produced above their annual normal output.

Prizes were given in an Essay Competition, and encouragement given to several workers in cash and kind. A conference of Rural works and sympathisers was held by end of the year which has shown ways of further progress.

OBJECTS OF THE COMPANY

The Company has been formed generally for the objects specified in the Memorandum of Association, but particularly with a view to catering for the increasing demand of Refined Oil and Vegetable Ghee in Gujarat.

Since days that could be historically traced edible Vegetable Oils in India have always formed a major portion of the people's staple requirements for fatty substances in food. Modern developments in science and oil technology have helped in eliminating the unnecessary and unsavoury factors in oil composition, making refined oil more palatable, more nutritious and easier to digest. Part solidification and granulation of these oils in their refined state, have ensured an easier consumption of the vital vitamin contents of these oils. It is these cards most of the unwelcome properties of ordinary oil without in any way harming the essential good qualities of the vegetable oil. It has gained a deserving popularity and has replaced to a considerable extent the use of pure tallow, which the greater portion of the country cannot afford. The refined and hydrogenated oils are practically replacing tallow in value and use. Moreover, their use as substitutes for animal fats in chocolate and baking industries are on the increase and their products when blended with vitamins excel even natural fats in their food values. In cosmetic science, the hydrogenated oils are proving wonderful part, for they are found healthier to skin than those prepared from stearate soaps. The popularity has ever been on the increase since inception, and various concerns with the capital of the country have been started to meet the increasing imports and production of foreign concerns could not satisfy. While Gujarat has been a consuming centre of refined oils, it has not been able to meet the demand for refined oils. It is now has been made for localised manufacture, although abundant supplies of the requisite raw materials are available and the surplus production usually exported to other manufacturing centres. The proposed plant, although small, cannot be ambitious enough to supply the total requirements of the surrounding territory, but it is hoped to be able to feed to a certain extent the demands in the vicinity.

With the above objects in view, the Company proposes to carry on the business of extracting sweet edible oil by crushing sweet edible oil bearing substances such as groundnut, copra, cotton seeds and other oil bearing substances, and refining oil, of manufacturing vegetable ghee by hydrogenation and incidental of exploiting manufacturing and marketing such by-products and residual matters as oil cakes, acid oil, oxygen, soap, glycerine, plastics, pharmaceutical paints and varnishes, etc. It is also proposed that the by-products may also be converted at a later day into chemicals and articles of utility. A simultaneous erection of a subsidiary plant for the manufacture of oil, palm oil, etc., is contemplated. This would yield a substantial profit.

About 30 acres of land have been acquired for the factory site at Samlaya, a station on B. & C. I. Railway to Godhra on its junction with the B. & S. Railway, and acquisition of further 60 acres of land is under consideration.

The Company has been fortunate in forming a very competent technical personnel to look after the manufacturing side and the promoters have also been successful in enlisting the co-operation of a number of prominent and distinguished chemists, chemical engineers and administrative personnel, with whose help the Company hopes to rank amongst the first few industrial concerns in India within a very short time.

The Company proposes to start with a daily production of 30 tons of vegetable oil, but the plant has been so designed that it affords scope for extension and increase of producing capacity to about 60 tons a day.

PRESENT PROGRESS

PRELIMINARY

The Company has been able to bearing substances such as and machinery necessary for the venture. The Company has been able to obtain releases of many controlled items from the various Government of India authorities, e.g. iron, steel, pipes, electrical goods, cement, machine, tools, trucks, and such other items without which the early working of the Company would not have been easily possible.

MACHINERY

Nearly all the requisite machinery has been either fabricated or purchased and has already begun to reach the site. The erection of Distillery machinery is almost complete and the Company expects to begin the production of refined oil very soon and the refined oils and Vegetable Ghee are scheduled for production by the end of the year.

BUILDINGS

By acquiring all the Building material, along with the released materials from Government controls, it has been possible to complete the construction of Distillery Building, two godowns, two wells, two large water tanks and residential quarters for the officers. The main factory building is also nearing completion with a huge oil tank and the roads are now being constructed.

The Half-Column "By Dim"

A peculiar pamphlet has recently been published by the Orient Press. It is attributed to Prof. Buz Fuz, whoever this professor is, it is entitled, "ANSWERS TO AN INTELLIGENT MUSLIM'S QUESTIONS." To me it savours of Government of India propaganda. Or maybe it is a Government of India "subtle" publication or maybe it is both. Here are a few samples of questions and answers:

Q.—Is it not disgraceful to allege such a base motive to the greatest Indian of the last 500 years? Is the Mahatma capable of political blackmail?

A.—Then what is it? Consider the facts. The Viceroy accuses Gandhi of being responsible for the violent events which have taken place since August last. Gandhi says it is the Viceroy who is responsible for them. Now it is open for both to argue it out until one convinces the other, or to wait until the good offices of a third party can be secured. But what does Gandhi do? He resorts to "the crucifixion of the flesh", so that his moral and supernatural effects may compel the Viceroy to confess his guilt, whether or not his reason and common sense point out that he is wrong and the Mahatma right.

Q.—You suggest that the Congress tactics will make the British go back on all their promises and actions and rule us with the sword again?

A.—No, not the British. But if Congress tactics succeed we shall come under the rule of the Japanese. And the Japanese, mind you, are perfect strangers to us, and we do not know if they would even theoretically grant us the right to self-determination.

Q.—Aren't you glad that Mahatma has survived his fast? What an irreparable loss to Indian leadership it would have been, if he had passed away!

A.—Yes I am extremely glad that the Mahatma has pulled through, and I wish him speedy return to health and vigour. But I am not sure that Indian leaders considered his leadership indispensable. I am afraid they would have accepted his death with inward rejoicing.

JANMASTAMI

"Whenever evil triumphs over the good, I take my birth among human beings to set things in order," that is what Lord Krishna himself declares. Janmastami, meant to commemorate the birth of Krishna, reminds one of the birth of the Messiah. It is specially festive for it promises the end of human suffering and the beginning of a new era. The mythological background of the festival is dramatic and interesting. Krishna, the tyrant, knew that a son of his sister Devaki, would bring his ruin. He began a "Massacre of the innocents" and systematically murdered the first seven issues of Devaki. Krishna was the eighth son. The night he was born was a ghastly one—rain and thunder and darkness threatened all around. But Krishna was to be saved. His father carried the child off to the milk-maid, Jashoda, to exchange Krishna for the new-born daughter of Jashoda. Basuki, the king of the serpents, spread its huge hood over the child to protect it from all dangers. Thus was Krishna saved. He grew up into a boy of eventful career and in subsequent life made innumerable achievements. In fact Indian mythology is so full of His career that it is difficult to think of it without Him. Hence is the importance of the festival Janmastami. On this gay day you surely feel for a cup of good tea. Remember Valley View, the luxury tea of the day.
